YWCA INTERIM HOUSE DOMESTIC VIOLENCE SHELTER

Founded in 1979, YWCA Interim House ranks amongst one of the oldest and largest domestic violence shelters in the State of Michigan.

YWCA Interim House is a temporary emergency shelter that provides empowerment-based linkages to a fresh start for women and their minor children of intimate partner violence.

In a family setting, the shelter operates 24-hours, 365 days a year, offering multiple services to women and children in a 67-bed, 23 residential room facility for up to 90 days.

YWCA INTERIM HOUSE IS A PROGRAM OF THE YWCA OF METROPOLITAN DETROIT AND IS FUNDED THROUGH:

- Michigan Department of Health & Human Services (MDHHS), Division of Victim Services
- City of Detroit, Housing and Revitalization Department - Homelessness Solutions Division
- Contributions from Private Donors, Groups, and Individuals
- YWCA of Metropolitan Detroit
